

Exceptional Bargains at Our July Clearance Sale

These items will command your earliest attention in our various departments and you will find every item here in our store ready for the thrifty shopper. Watch and see what we are doing every day. Many items will be mentioned throughout our sale that are not in the full-page advertisement.

Petticoats

One lot of good Seersucker Petticoats, $1.00 value, sale price, 79c
50c Gingham Petticoats, sale price, each, 37c
One lot Colored Heatherbloom and Mercerized Petticoats, $3.50, $2.98 values, each, at 1.69
One lot the same as the above, only in our $3.50, $2.98 and $2.75 values, sale price, 1.97
One lot of Wash Skirts, $1.75 value, sale price, 1.19

House Dresses

One lot of good House Dresses, our regular $1.00 value, sale price, 79c
One lot of light and dark colored Wrappers, $1 value, at 69c

Waists

One lot of Waists, slightly soiled and mused, our regular $1.25 value, sale price, each 50c
One lot of White Waists, $2.25 to $3.98 value, all to close at One-Half Price.

KIMONOS—All our odd numbers in Kimonos at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

The Homer Fitts Company

A New Straw

25c to $10.00.

There is over a month Straw time yet, and you men who want to be well dressed will find a New Hat a big addition to your appearance.

It's worth much more than it costs.

THE FRANK McWHORTER COMPANY.

MONTPELIER.

Clifford Caswell on Motor Cycle Run Down by Team—Gash Cut in Head.

The American Brass company of Waterbury, Conn., has filed articles of association with the secretary of state and will cut timber from woodlands owned by the company in Ludlow and Bolton and saw lumber to make box boards. The capital stock of the company is $500,000. There will be no Vermont office, but George W. Wing of Montpelier is named as one on whom papers may be served. The T. S. Peck Insurance agency of Burlington has also filed incorporation papers and, with a capital stock of $35,000, will conduct an insurance and ticket brokerage office. The signers are T. S. Peck, F. A. Rousseau, and J. E. Thrall, all of Burlington.

The Beaver Construction company of Pittsfield, Mass., has the contract for building the new garage at the Pavilion.

Clifford Caswell was badly injured last night in a collision with a junk wagon. Caswell was going toward Barre on the Berlin side of the river on his motor cycle, when he met a junk outfit, and there was a collision. An examination of the road after the accident is said to have shown the cycle was on its own side of the road, and just how the trouble occurred is not known, though it is also alleged the driver of the team, after running down the rider drove over him and the cycle as they lay in the road and went on without ascertaining how badly he was hurt. Caswell was taken into a nearby house and a physician found that, while no bones were broken, there was a cut two and one-half inches long over the left eye, which penetrated to the bone; that he was covered with bruises from head to foot, and that much dirt was ground into his flesh. His clothing was torn to shreds.

Alderman Waldo H. Farrar has purchased the home of the late Frank A. Sherburne on College street and will take possession July 15. Mrs. Sherburne is preparing to leave the city for Boston, where she has a position as matron in a dormitory connected with Harvard college.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Caramel ice cream at Kendrick's. Buy your hosiery now in the July sale at Vaughan's.

Take home a package of Kendrick's caramel ice cream. It is delicious.

Charles Townsend and son, Frank, are passing several days with relatives in Chelsea.

Union service on the park to-morrow evening at 6:30. Special music and talk by Rev. J. W. Barnett.

Bakers, attention! Special meeting to be held Saturday night at 7:30. Important business. Ed. J. Venner.

Last chance to see them to-day at 3 o'clock on the I. A. C. field. Who? The world's famous Chinese baseball team vs. I. A. C.

Hamburgs, silks, hosiery, parasols, suits, skirts, neckwear, belts and hair ornaments at one-half price Saturday. Henry W. Knight.

Miss Carolina Cherini, who recently arrived in New York from Italy, is making an extended visit at the home of I. Drigoin of Sixth street.

To-day, boys, is your last chance to see the famous Chinese baseball team play in Vermont. The game will be the hardest fought of the series.

A chorus choir, the ladies' quartet of the Baptist church, a violin and cornet, it is expected, will furnish music for the union service on the park at 6:30 to-morrow evening, when Rev. J. W. Barnett will be the speaker.

Rev. A. C. Griffin, curate of St. Monica's church on Summer street, will return home to-night from Isle La Motte, where he has had partial supervision over a boy's camp conducted by several priests of the Burlington diocese.

The death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Cuzoni of 97 Pleasant street occurred yesterday afternoon. The child was only three weeks old and had been ill for several days. The funeral will be held at the house this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will take place in the Catholic cemetery on Beekley street.

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1912.

TALK OF THE TOWN

All the new things for summer at Vaughan's.

Jap silk waists, black, also white, in the sale at Vaughan's.

Mrs. C. W. Ball has returned from Littleton, N. H., where she has been visiting her sister.

Miss Grace Wood of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. D. H. Cutler, of Jefferson street.

Mrs. F. I. Church left yesterday for Bethel, where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Miss Nona Hayes of North Main street has gone to Old Orchard, Me., for a two weeks' vacation.

R. Colombo and Basin Bianchi returned home this morning, after spending a few days in Burlington.

Attorney William Wishart returned home this morning, after spending a few days in Burlington on business.

Mrs. R. A. Aldrich of Summer street left yesterday for Portland, Me., where she will visit relatives for a week.

W. H. Harrison of New York, of the granite manufacturing firm of Harrison Granite Co., is in town on a business visit.

Fred G. Canton returned home last night, after passing a few days in Keeseville, N. Y., as the guest of Alfred E. Hyland.

Members of the Queen of the Forest circle, No. 357, are asked to leave their due books with Mrs. J. R. Ball at 5:00 as possible.

Walter Broggi returned home this morning from Burlington, where he accompanied a party of tourists in a Cadillac automobile.

Last chance to see them to-day at 3 o'clock on the I. A. C. field. Who? The world's famous Chinese baseball team vs. I. A. C.

We are first again with a new subject in post cards. This time the new government postoffice. See our window. C. N. Kenyon & Co.

Mrs. Minnie Parizeo of Currier block left the city this morning for New York, where she has secured a position as a designer for dresses.

Guy Stafford and Charles Andrews of Morrisville are passing a few days in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Weaver of East street.

Mrs. A. H. Lewis of Cottage street left yesterday afternoon for St. Albans, in which vicinity she will make an extended visit with relatives.

Miss Kate O'Brien of Boston is passing several days in the city as the guest of her cousin, Rev. P. M. McKenna, at St. Monica's rectory on Summer street.

B. H. Wells, Mrs. F. G. Howland and Miss Lucy Wells went to Montpelier to-day, where they attended the funeral of the late Charles H. Heath.

W. E. Colvin of Long Island City joined his wife, Mrs. W. E. Colvin, this afternoon for a ten days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson, and his brother, F. T. Colvin.

The current issue of the Granite Cutters' Journal, published in Quincy, Mass., has for its cover piece, a picture of the Bolster monument, recently set in position at Elmwood cemetery.

John Stuart of Leeds, P. Q., and his mother-in-law, Mrs. G. A. George, arrived in the city last night on their way to Orange, where they will make an extended visit with Robert Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Owens left to-day in the former's automobile for Old Orchard, Me., where they will be guests for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell.

P. G. Lamson has returned to Boston, after passing several days in Barre and vicinity on business. Mr. Lamson will go from Boston to Atlantic City, N. J., to attend a convention of retail monument dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mosher of Brighton, Mass., who are passing several weeks at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bemis, of Long street, returned to Barre to-day, after a week's visit in Hyde Park and Morrisville.

Mrs. O. N. Granger of Summer street leaves to-night for Chicago, Ill., where she will attend a convention of the ladies' auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. Mrs. Granger goes as a delegate from the Barre division of the auxiliary.

The city clerk's office sent out yesterday the annual tax notices to the taxpayers of Barre, stating, in addition, that August 10 is the last date that taxpayers can have the advantage of the lowest rate, as after that date the fees of collection will be charged.

William H. Eager leaves on the Green Mountain express to-night for Boston, where he will start for Columbus, O., where he will represent the Barre local at the annual convention of the Retail Clerks' International association. Mr. Eager expects to be absent about two weeks.

There are a few vacant dates for picnic parties at Caledonia park, the popular picnic resort. Those wishing dates would do well to consult John S. McDonald, 23 Bassett street, Barre, Vt., or he can be seen any Saturday or Thursday evening in Clara Gordon rooms, Bolster block.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wales of Worcester, Mass., former residents of Barre, arrived in the city yesterday. Mrs. Wales will pass several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Keith, of Eastern avenue, while Mr. Wales will return to Worcester Monday.

Change Your Seat at the Table Occasionally.

The following boarding house suggestion appears in the July Woman's Home Companion:

"In a business women's boarding-house, with thirty-five to forty permanent guests, there was a disposition to form cliques. This was somewhat due to the fact that women who sat together at table day after day became well acquainted with each other, while having hardly more than a bowing acquaintance with those at other tables."

"Then one day the manager announced that, to 'keep things moving,' there would be a re-arrangement of seats at table the first day of each month. Some murmurs of disapproval greeted this, but when the first day came everyone was greatly interested in seeing what neighbors she had drawn. The tables were lettered and the seats numbered, and each guest drew a slip bearing her designated place."

"Meals for days afterward were much livelier than they had been. There were new people to talk to, new subjects coming up at each meal, and everyone voted the innovation a great success."

CAN CEMENT TIES

BETWEEN NATIONS

Premier Poincare of France Pointed Out Work Which French, American and British Journalists Can Do.

Paris, July 13.—Raymond Poincare, the French premier, delivered a notable address at the annual dinner of the Anglo-American Press association, which includes the American and British newspaper correspondents in Paris. Reflecting the words of the toastmaster of the evening, the premier declared that journalists could do much to develop the harmony and friendship which exists between France, the United States and Great Britain.

"You know France at first hand; you see her at work," declared M. Poincare. "You know that if France wishes to be powerful, she wishes at the same time to place her power towards the development of peace and civilization throughout the world. France is a nation of noble ideas and generous sentiments. Say it, repeat it; endeavor to be between our three countries the interpreters of minds and hearts."

In closing, the premier proposed a toast to the solid friendship between France, England and the United States. Among those present were Myron T. Herrick, the United States ambassador; Captain Frank H. Mason, the United States consul-general, and B. J. Shoninger, president of the American Chamber of Commerce at Paris.

A curious wireless telegraphy phenomenon has been discovered at the railroad station of Clichy-Levallois, near the gates of Paris. Electricians who touched the wires of a large collection of telegraph conduits which had not been connected with any system, received severe electrical shocks. An investigation by the state railway engineers revealed that the shocks were due to Hertzian waves sent out from the powerful wireless station at the top of the Eiffel tower. A receiving station was established by way of a test and a telegraph sapper was able to intercept wireless messages despatched from the Eiffel tower and other stations.

By pure chance the collection of telegraph wires at Clichy-Levallois railway station fills all the necessary conditions of height, distance and position to receive the Eiffel tower communications. The incident has caused great interest in scientific circles, as a wireless post especially erected on the top of a school-house in Paris has never been able to intercept messages from the tower.

A good idea of the great expense in the nationalization of railroads, so far as it has proceeded in France, is obtainable from an official report just distributed in the Chamber of Deputies. According to this estimate the deficit on the state-owned Western railroad for the current year is over $13,000,000.

M. Henri Cheron, the author of the report, attributes this deficit to the cost of maintaining the line, the increase in the number of employees and the augmentation of wages. The report points out, however, that the service, hitherto deplorable, has been incontestably improved. Before the Western railroad was taken over by the state, the deficit amounted to about five million dollars. Since the nationalization of the line in 1911, the French government has expended in improvements about $47,000,000.

His sense of duty moved by the number of horses that fall down in the streets of Paris, Mr. W. Weinburg, who is a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in New York, has offered to provide an automobile ambulance for horses for the city of Paris. First aid to horses in Paris is in the control of the Society for the Protection of Animals, and to this organization, Mr. Weinburg made his offer. The society was delighted, but had to confess that its limited funds would not permit it to assume the responsibility of maintenance of the automobile, which would amount to about two thousand dollars a year. Thereupon Mr. Weinburg promptly volunteered to contribute two hundred dollars yearly for maintenance. He found two other American friends who would do the same, and is now seeking seven other people who will contribute a like amount, so that the ambulance for suffering horses may be a certainty.

Since Professor Metchnikoff has been writing on the value of carrots for general health, that homely vegetable has found a regular place on the menu of home and restaurant in Paris. It has been remembered that carrots form part of the daily food at Vichy, and the chefs at the big hotels are inventing recipes to satisfy the taste of the moment.

"Cressy soup, as everybody knows, is but mashed carrots diluted with milk, and at the fashionable restaurants on the Bois de Boulogne restaurants on Friday evenings there is scarcely a table where this soup is not served."

Carrots, according to Professor Metchnikoff, contain a sugar that kills a bacillus that prevents our attaining the age of a hundred; besides this, carrots possess, according to tradition, the property of conferring a fine complexion on all who persistently eat them.

Change Your Seat at the Table Occasionally.

The following boarding house suggestion appears in the July Woman's Home Companion:

"In a business women's boarding-house, with thirty-five to forty permanent guests, there was a disposition to form cliques. This was somewhat due to the fact that women who sat together at table day after day became well acquainted with each other, while having hardly more than a bowing acquaintance with those at other tables."

"Then one day the manager announced that, to 'keep things moving,' there would be a re-arrangement of seats at table the first day of each month. Some murmurs of disapproval greeted this, but when the first day came everyone was greatly interested in seeing what neighbors she had drawn. The tables were lettered and the seats numbered, and each guest drew a slip bearing her designated place."

"Meals for days afterward were much livelier than they had been. There were new people to talk to, new subjects coming up at each meal, and everyone voted the innovation a great success."

Change Your Seat at the Table Occasionally.

The following boarding house suggestion appears in the July Woman's Home Companion:

"In a business women's boarding-house, with thirty-five to forty permanent guests, there was a disposition to form cliques. This was somewhat due to the fact that women who sat together at table day after day became well acquainted with each other, while having hardly more than a bowing acquaintance with those at other tables."

"Then one day the manager announced that, to 'keep things moving,' there would be a re-arrangement of seats at table the first day of each month. Some murmurs of disapproval greeted this, but when the first day came everyone was greatly interested in seeing what neighbors she had drawn. The tables were lettered and the seats numbered, and each guest drew a slip bearing her designated place."

"Meals for days afterward were much livelier than they had been. There were new people to talk to, new subjects coming up at each meal, and everyone voted the innovation a great success."

Change Your Seat at the Table Occasionally.

The following boarding house suggestion appears in the July Woman's Home Companion:

"In a business women's boarding-house, with thirty-five to forty permanent guests, there was a disposition to form cliques. This was somewhat due to the fact that women who sat together at table day after day became well acquainted with each other, while having hardly more than a bowing acquaintance with those at other tables."

"Then one day the manager announced that, to 'keep things moving,' there would be a re-arrangement of seats at table the first day of each month. Some murmurs of disapproval greeted this, but when the first day came everyone was greatly interested in seeing what neighbors she had drawn. The tables were lettered and the seats numbered, and each guest drew a slip bearing her designated place."

"Meals for days afterward were much livelier than they had been. There were new people to talk to, new subjects coming up at each meal, and everyone voted the innovation a great success."

Change Your Seat at the Table Occasionally.

The following boarding house suggestion appears in the July Woman's Home Companion:

"In a business women's boarding-house, with thirty-five to forty permanent guests, there was a disposition to form cliques. This was somewhat due to the fact that women who sat together at table day after day became well acquainted with each other, while having hardly more than a bowing acquaintance with those at other tables."

"Then one day the manager announced that, to 'keep things moving,' there would be a re-arrangement of seats at table the first day of each month. Some murmurs of disapproval greeted this, but when the first day came everyone was greatly interested in seeing what neighbors she had drawn. The tables were lettered and the seats numbered, and each guest drew a slip bearing her designated place."

"Meals for days afterward were much livelier than they had been. There were new people to talk to, new subjects coming up at each meal, and everyone voted the innovation a great success."

Change Your Seat at the Table Occasionally.

The following boarding house suggestion appears in the July Woman's Home Companion:

"In a business women's boarding-house, with thirty-five to forty permanent guests, there was a disposition to form cliques. This was somewhat due to the fact that women who sat together at table day after day became well acquainted with each other, while having hardly more than a bowing acquaintance with those at other tables."

SATURDAY AT ONE-HALF PRICE

To make a quick clean-up, the following lots for this one day at One-Half Price:

50 pieces of 10c Hamburgs, per yard	5c
6 pieces of 25c Silks, per yard	12 1/2c
6 pieces of 35c Silks, per yard	18c
20 dozen Ladies' and Misses' Lace Hose at One-Half Price
All Parasols at One-Half Price
1 Misses' White Serge Suit, size 14, at One-Half Price
1 Misses' Navy Blue Suit, size 13, at One-Half Price
8 Ladies' Black Skirts at One-Half Price
Hair Ornaments, Neckwear and Belts at One-Half Price
One lot Ladies' Waists at One-Half Price
All Remnants at One-Half Price

Real bargains here Saturday.

HENRY W. KNIGHT, BARRE, VT.

Successor to Veale & Knight.

TO THE PUBLIC

According to the agreement between the Retail Merchants' Association and the Retail Clerks Association, stores will be closed on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays; during the months of July, August and September, at 5.30 p. m.

Barre Retail Merchants Association

AT THE PAVILION

Vaudeville changed Monday and Thursday—Pictures changed Monday, Wednesday and Friday

Programme Today DeWITT and STUART

presenting SHORTY DEWITT, late star of Mutt and Jeff Co. No. 1, a little dancing, a little singing, and a whole lot of comedy by the best midget comedian in the world. Don't miss this act. It's a big hit everywhere.

MAE HENDRICKS

in pleasing songs and dances. A clever, pleasing act that is bound to please you.

Photoplays

A SON'S DEVOTION. A thrilling story of the golden West, pictured in beautiful scenery, played with vim and dash, and a deep touch of pathos. An unusually interesting western picture.

THE WOMAN HATERS. A fine dramatic picture, telling a story that is bound to interest all. The action is spirited and the interest never lags.

COMING—MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY. Sterling and Chapman, Scotch singers of Scotch songs. One of the best Scotch singing acts in vaudeville.

MISS IONE GHIO, Pianist. CHILDREN, 5 CENTS.

ADMISSION, 10 CENTS.

Cut Prices!

Hundreds of people braved the hot weather Saturday to visit our store and take advantage of the extreme low prices we are offering on Low Shoes and Oxfords. Come early while the assortment is best.

$4.50 Oxfords at	-	$3.65
4.00 Oxfords at	-	3.35
3.50 Oxfords at	-	2.95
3.00 Oxfords at	-	2.60
2.50 Oxfords at	-	1.95
2.00 Oxfords at	-	1.70
1.75 Oxfords at	-	1.45

Ten per cent discount on Working Shoes. Ask to see the "Fisole," the new shoe with a breathing sole.

Geo. N. Tilden,
Wood Block - Barre, Vt.

FRUIT JARS

There is only one Best Fruit Jar—that is Ball's "Sure Seal." It has a large mouth. Sizes: quarts and pints.

C. W. AVERILL & CO.

80-81 North Main Street. Telephone 439-W. Barre, Vermont.

CUT PRICES ON SHOES

A Tremendous Sacrifice

Citizens in Noah's time didn't believe there would be a flood and didn't expect to get wet. We didn't expect the water to break through the Potash brook culvert and flood us last Easter, but it did and we must make this sacrifice for your benefit.

About all sizes in Men's Tan Calf Oxfords and Black Calf Oxfords, $4 values for $2.50. $2.50 values, only a few left, at $1.50. Boys' Black Calf Blucher Shoes, $3 values, good assortment for $2.00. Youths' Black Calf Blucher Shoes, $1.50 values, good assortment for $1.00.

We also add a line of Women's Suede and Tan Oxfords, $3.50 value, for $1.50.

PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE

C. S. Andrews, Prop., Barre, Vermont